CITIZEN CONCERNS

Christy Pasman of the Henry County Pickleball group came before the board with questions and concerns regarding the existing pickleball courts at Baker Park. She stated the courts have not been renovated since being put in several years ago and is in need of attention as far as paint, cracks in the cement, and the fence needs repaired. Discussion with the board followed. Patty noted that donations can be taken at the Henry County Community Foundation through the Park's Pass Through Fund. Christy also stated that there is a small balance for the Henry County Pickleball account that was given to the city several years ago when the courts were first created. Patty stated that would need to be looked into to see what the actual balance is.

MEETING ADJOURNED AT 6:10PM, NEXT MEETING SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 7, 2022.
