COMMITTEE REPORTS:

- Council-lady Abbott: Noted;
- Lot at Grand Ave and I. Someone came and knocked down some of the weeds but not all. Lot is owned by the State of Indiana.
- Councilman Hancock: Noted;
- Asked to speak with Traffic Committee after Council
- Councilman Walden: Noted;
- Housing Committee gave out 1000 Day Lilies to be planted in the Castle Heights area.
 - Milling had started on Parkview Dr and inquired about sidewalks from Bundy to St Rd 3. Not at this time the milling is part of the Community Crossing Grant.
- Councilman Dicken: Noted;
- No Comment
- President Koger: Noted;
- No Comment
- Councilman Perdue: Noted;
- Inquired about going back and fixing the patched pot hole areas. The Water Dept. and Street Dept. are working together using the Street Dept. equipment to do the repairs in house instead of outsourcing the work.
- Councilman Peckinpaugh: Noted;
- Inquired about the Henry Township Trustee Fire Contract with the City was up for renewal soon.
 - Presented a list of items that might be done by the City instead of including them on the Stellar application as a good faith in hopes of getting the Disbursement. Included in this list were also projects that were given at the Special Council Meeting that Stellar Disbursements could possibly be used for.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS:

- Transit Superintendent Sloan stated that 3 new buses were delivered today and they should be up and running on the road next week.
- Street Superintendent Walker asked council to look in to purchasing a roller for the Street Department.

CITIZENS APPEARING BEFORE THE COUNCIL:

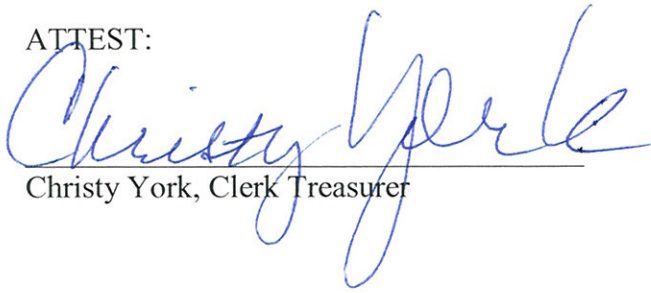

- John Moles resident of Q Ave stated that people were still speeding down the road even though a mobile speed limit sign has been placed there. He was informed by Police Chief Schofield that we are currently collecting data from the speed limit sign recordings and would re- address the issue again on July 16th Council Meeting.
- Chamber Director Shaun Default invited everyone to the chamber luncheon on Wed June 19th where Josh Estelle will be attending about a new insurance that you can get by being a member of the Chamber. Shaun also stated that they will be doing ribbon cuttings for new chamber members and invited the public to attend.

- Councilman Peckinpaugh moved to adjourn. Meeting adjourned.
